

SUNDAY, APRIL 26, 2-4PM POETRY READING featuring Helen Marie Casey

Berlin 1870 Town Hall
12 Woodward Avenue, Berlin, MA

Entanglement by Helen Marie Casey

Buds on the lilac take the battering, rain incessant, birds scarce, you faithful
as the wood duck. Nothing between us,
I say, meaning We are inseparable,
meaning I know your body,
meaning I, too, am become a wood duck,
ripples sailing away from you and back again.
Entanglement, a quantum theory,
all about inseparability—however great the distance—all about what can never be undone.

national poetry month

APRIL IS NATIONAL POETRY MONTH!

OPEN READING – READ YOUR OWN WORK OR THAT OF A FAVORITE POET.

READING BY HELEN MARIE CASEY

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

REFRESHMENTS

Sponsored by the Friends of the Berlin Public Library and the Worcester County
Poetry Association

