Higher Ground is a small yet powerful collection of poetry that speaks on many levels of racial, social, economical, and spiritual struggle, from the streets of the inner city to the halls of higher education. Written just months before the devastation of Hurricane Katrina, Higher Ground seeks to uplift the spirit and liberate the heart, crafted in the rich traditions of jazz, blues and hip hop.

A book-signing and reception will follow the lecture. All are welcome to attend.

RSVP: 508.849.3341 or alumni@annamaria.edu

The lecture series is the legacy of Edith Mooney LaVigne '63, beloved Anna Maria alumna and Trustee.
