

WCPA Annual Poetry Contest Winners' Reading: The Frank O'Hara Prize

Sunday, September 23, 2018
3:00 to 5:00 pm

First Unitarian Church
90 Main Street, Worcester

Featuring readings by the contest judge,
Regie Gibson, and the 2018 contest winners.

First Place - Jeff Walt
The World is Ending on the East Coast

Second Place - Nicole DiCello
Electra 101

Third Place - Malt Schlitzman
This Rage Dies with Me

Honorable Mention - Michael Morlock
Speak of the Moment

The Worcester County Poetry Association annual poetry contest was established in 1973. In November 2009, the contest was renamed the "WCPA Poetry Contest: The Frank O'Hara Prize" in honor of Frank O'Hara and in grateful recognition of the O'Hara Family for its support of the Worcester literary community.

The WCPA wishes to thank Phil and Pat O'Hara for their ongoing support.